

January 2012

Welcome to the monthly newsletter for the Vancouver Art Gallery's family programs. Every weekend the Gallery offers unique activities geared towards 5 to 12 year-old visitors and their families. This newsletter highlights each month's activities.

Every Saturday, 12 - 4pm

Grown-ups and children can explore the galleries with our team of curious, whimsical, funny and informed Art Agents. Every Saturday agents engage in the exhibitions with new activities and conversations related to the works on display. Free with regular admission. For this month we will be exploring the exhibition Shore, Forest and Beyond in the 2nd Floor Galleries.

Every Saturday, 2pm in the Galleries

Art Tracks are child-oriented exhibition tours offering new and interdisciplinary ways of looking at and thinking about art. Forthcoming tours will explore Shore, Forest and Beyond in the 2nd Floor Galleries. Free with regular admission.

2nd & 4th Sunday, 12 - 4pm

The Making Place offers explorative, hands-on workshops for all kinds of making-related activities.

Free with regular admission to the Gallery.

Upcoming Making Places:

January 8 –

1. Outside + Upside-down-

Find Inspiration in one of Rodney Graham's photo, use simple materials to make a sculpture of an object that we don't usually see Upside down.

2. Shapes and Symmetry –

Use simple shapes and lines of symmetry to create stylised image, inspired by the work of some First Nations artists.

3. Local Landscape-

In Vancouver there are lots of different kinds of landscapes, the city, the beach the forest, draw your favorite.

January 22 -

1. Shapes and Symmetry –

Use simple shapes and lines of symmetry to create stylised image, inspired by the work of some First Nations artists.

2. Paint Transformed- Use a bright pallet of colour and abstract mark making to create a butterfly, inspired by the work of Jack Shadbolt.

3. The Idea of Here- What comes to mind when you think of Vancouver? Work with others to create a sculpture about your city.
